Glimpse of Life

André Q. Jones was born October 26, 1960 in New York City to the late Melvin and Dolores Jones. He passed away on July 24, 2012, at his home in NYC. He spent his entire life as a resident of Harlem.

He was educated in the NYC Public School system.

André enjoyed life. He enjoyed people, he enjoyed meeting new friends and he treasured his old friends.

Always walking fast with a smile on his face and a backpack on his back he was ready to conquer the world.

Saturday mornings were the best for André. He would take his nephew, Kwame to basketball camp. Watching Kwame play basketball and giving him tips was something that only a proud uncle could do and enjoy.

His love and devotion for his sister, Cheryl was strong and consistent. They looked out for each other.

To know that his only niece will soon be an attorney made him cry with glee. He just couldn't believe how smart his niece, Zakiya better known as KiKi was.

He leaves behind a son, André Jr.; one sister, Cheryl; a grandson, Tyler André; one niece; and a host of nephews and many, many, many friends.

We love you, my brother, now rest, and enjoy your journey home.

Andre is predeceased by his parents and one brother, Cortrell Anthony Holt.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

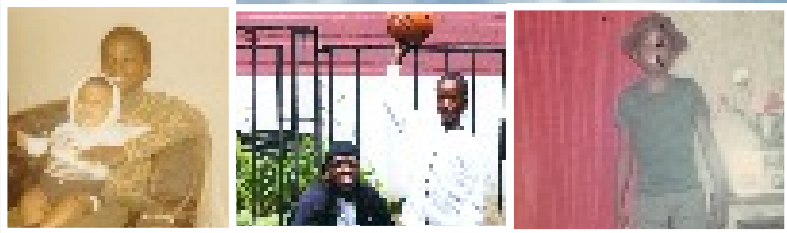

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
