

Safely Home

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder why I so calmly Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely, For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, Pray to trust our Father's Will.*

*There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth - You shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed, He will gently call you Home:
Oh, the rapture of that meeting, Oh, the joy to see you come!*

Obituary

Doretha "Dorothy" Scott, beloved daughter and the sixth of seven children born to the late Leroy and Mary Gainer-Broxton was born in Newark, NJ on October 2, 1948. She departed this life on August 5, 2012.

Dorothy attended the Newark Public School System. She later became a long-time employee of the Newark Public School System; and worked there approximately fifteen years. She worked for the Woodbridge Developmental Center in Woodbridge, NJ and after twenty-two years of service retired in 2010.

She met and married the late Jessie Scott, Jr., on October 16, 1964. From this union five children were born, Brenda, Linda, Jesse, Robert and Ernest. She is also the loving mother of Diva and Shamar Scott. Dorothy was a devoted foster parent and mother figure to many.

She is predeceased by two brothers, Willie and Leroy Broxton and one sister, Neatha Louise Price.

She leaves to mourn: two sisters, Maryann Broxton and Minnie-Lee Boone; one brother, Robert Broxton; three daughters-in-law, Marva and Sakeenah Scott and Suzette Haywood; seven grandchildren, Al-Teriq, Anesthesia, Desiree, Christopher, Resha, Tristine and Robert, Jr.; two great grandchildren, Al-Zir and Nalen; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, close relatives and friends.

She will be truly missed.
