Obituary

Jessie Adams better known as Nancy was born February 14, 1941 in Robinsonville, Miss.

She was the youngest of ten children born to the late Evans and Lucille McAlpin. Nancy was primarily raised by her sisters.

The family moved to Harlem, NY when Nancy was in her teens. She started a family and wed the late Howard G. Adams. Together they had five children. Rodney her third child preceded her in death. Nancy raised her children in Flushing Queens, where she resided for forty-three years. Nancy began a career in the health care field and worked hard until she was injured.

Nancy enjoyed spending time with her family from vacationing with her daughters in the Bahamas to playing Wii with her grandchildren, she lived her life with vigor. Nancy was looked upon as a confidante to many of her nieces and nephews. She loved her family and friends with a passion. Loyalty was more than just a word to Nancy.

She had a soft spot for helping others. Between her charismatic personality and her down to earth spirit Nancy was easy to talk to. Nancy comforted others with an open ear and encouraging words.

Nancy was not one to sit idle, from playing cards with her brother Sam and those close to her, an occasional trip to Atlantic City was not uncommon. Her humor and wit were well known by many.

Nancy departed this chapter of her life on August 9, 2012. She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her.

She leaves to mourn: her children, Ronald, Roslyn, Roxann, and Renee; thirteen grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one brother, Samuel McAlpin; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

May I Go Now

*May I go now? Do you think the time is right?
May I say goodbye to pain - filled days and endless lonely nights?*

*I've lived my life and done my best, an example tried to be.
So can I take that step beyond and set my spirit free?
I didn't want to go at first, I fought with all my might, but something seems to draw me now, to a warm and lovely light.*

*I want to go, I really do, it's difficult to stay.
But I will try as best I can to live for just one more day,
To give you time to care for me and share your love and fears.*

*I know you're sad and afraid because I see your tears.
I will not be far, I promise you that and hope you'll always know*

That my spirit will be close to you wherever you may go.

*Thank you for loving me, you know I love you too.
That 's why it's hard to say goodbye and end this life with you.*

So hold me now, just one more time and let me hear you say, because you care so much for me. You'll let me go today.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
