Reflections of Life

Roger Lee Chambliss was born on May 17, 1933 in Franklin, Virginia to Willie and Ida Chambliss. Roger was the second eldest child of seven. He was raised in a loving God fearing home.

Roger attended Ms. Shanks Boarding School where he was educated up until the 12th grade and then graduated. The family eventually moved to Baltimore, Maryland. Once there, Roger joined the air force to serve his country as an Air Police man. While in the Air Force he married Loretta Lucas of Chicago, Illinois. After his military obligation had ended, Roger and Loretta rejoined his family in Baltimore, Maryland. Roger and Loretta divorced and he then moved to the Bronx, New York City.

He then obtained a job as a Foreman in a metal factory where he constructed metal for office enclosures. Roger was a source of enjoyment to his friends and family members. He had away of making simple words and phrases comical. His demeanor was often times calm, cool and collected, until someone dared to wave the red flag. Rogers family played an intricate part in his life; He would lend a quiet hand or whatever he had to assist any family member who needed his help. His understated personality made him a loyal and trust worthy confidant.

Roger Chambliss is survived by his five remaining siblings: Eddie J. Chambliss, Marshall A. Chambliss, Rochell I. Chambliss, Mildred C. Myree and Margaret Chambliss; and a host of nieces and nephews. He will be truly missed by his friends and family.

Rest now brother in the Grace and Mercy that was given to you by your Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

God's Garden

*God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.*

He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful He always takes the best.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,

so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during this hour of bereavement.
