Obituary

A wise and loving God who makes no mistakes saw fit to call home Evad George Barrett on August 7, 2012. Evad Barrett was born on July 26, 1923 in the parish of St. Mary, Jamaica, West Indies.

He attended Peartree Grove Primary School and after completion he did farming in which he developed his excellent skills as a gardener. Shortly after he moved to Kingston and learned carpentry with a land agency. He then married and migrated to the United States where he continued his career doing carpentry. He has worked very hard until he retired with his wife in Jamaica, Queens, New York. There he continued his first skill of gardening in which he planted some of the most beautiful flower and vegetable gardens in the neighborhood.

He is survived by his loving wife, Icyline Barrett; his three sons, Derrick, Junior and Barry; his two step-sons, Ruben and Fredrick; one brother and one sister; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

*Farming to the pears, and carrots
Once was a man name Evad Barrett
Born in the month of summer
Not born alone
He had sisters and brothers
Born and raised in the island of Jamaica
Helpful and sweet as the Lord his maker
Who would of thought he'd be gone so soon
He passed in peace
As quiet as a room
Now dwelling in the house of the Lord
Where angels welcome him with sweet accord.
Heart and mind as pure as gold
It was his time for God to uplift his soul
Farming to pears and carrots
As he Rest in Peace Evad Barrett*
