

Matthew 6:28

And why take ye thought for raiment?
Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin

Matthew 5:3-12

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers:
for they shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

Obituary

Orion Virginia Bugg, daughter of Rosa and Thomas Bugg, was born in Stony Creek, Virginia. The youngest of four (two sisters, Louise and Frances and a brother, James). She came to New York at a very young age. Her mother had to work so Orion was raised by her grandmother, Louvenia. Orion attended Harran High School in Manhattan and graduated. Later on she married twice which produced her blessings of a son and a daughter.

Now, Mrs. Orion Williams also was a working mom for the unionized company named David Ungar Fur and Leather Workers Local 342 which she was a member of more than twenty years.

Orion was also active in her community. She was involved in the Jackie Robinson Tenants Association. She was the captain of her floor which made her very proud. In her community she always had a smile and a kind word and a humorous grin for the children.

As her daughter and son reflected, the most they will miss about their mom is her fantastic holiday parties and all that southern food she cooked. Mama sure could burn. And heaven forbid if you asked her for her recipes. That was sacred territory and many days I wanted to know how she made her tomato pudding (my God so scrumptious). Orion also loved her entertainment such as movies, music and cultural events in Harlem. The Apollo Theater was like our second home away from home. But above all, she loved her faith and God. Baptized twice. First at Salem Baptist Church and second at Mt. Moriah both in Harlem USA.

As well as the rest of the family, we will reminisce about the good and the bad times and how her spirit will be forever embedded in our hearts.

Know as Orion to her colleagues, O, V-A and Sis to her family and friends. She was a wife, mother, aunt, great aunt, grandmother and great grandmother, darling we all loved you but God loves you best.

Orion Williams leaves behind: a son, Donald; daughter, Arlene; nieces, Annette, Carolyn, Mary and Geraldine; nephew, James Jr.; grandnephew, John; grandsons, Gregory and Chris; great grandson, Calvin; and a host of great grandnieces and nephews.
