Obituary

Mrs. Nettie Ware was born on March 4 1919(?) one of twelve children to Joseph and Suzie Posey in St. George, South Carolina.

The family eventually moved to Youngstown, Ohio. Nettie left Youngstown in 1946 and moved to New York City where she lived and started her married life with Mr. Charles Ware (deceased) and raised daughter Roxie.

Nettie is survived by three sisters (Lilian, Louise, and Mary); one brother, (Joseph) three grandsons, (Thomas, Kevin and Steven); seven great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren and numerous nephews, nieces and cousins and many, many friends who loved her dearly.

As she always was, Ms. Nettie was full of life and routinely out and about even up to her final days. Everyone who knew Ms. Nettie always showed their utmost love and respect and called her “Ma” and always looked out for her when they saw her on the street.” Ma” Nettie was always willing to look out for others and gave all she could her whole life for the well-being of those around her, just for loves’ sake. Mrs. Nettie Ware set a high standard and was and is a living example of genuine love and selfless giving.

To Those I Love

*To those I love and those that love me,
When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone
So grieve for a while for me if you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart
I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
All my love around you so soft and clear
And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
