Obituary

Veronica Palmer (Watson)-Hurlock of Cambria Heights, NY, was called home to eternal rest on August 19, 2012 in Hempstead, NY after a long battle with Alzheimer's.

She was born in Havana, Cuba on August 29th, 1925 to Joseph and Zetella Watson. In 1929, at the age of four, Veronica moved to Jamaica, WI. She attended St. Georges Girls School and Hampdon High School. She later met Joseph Hasfal Hurlock Sr. They were soon married and had their first born son and only child, they resided in Brooklyn, NY. Veronica graduated from Kings County Hospital and throughout her career worked for Cumberland and Woodhall hospitals for twenty-five years. Veronica was best known for her hard work as an LPN and her passion for Maternity and Surgical Nursing. She was an active union member of SEIU Local 721. Her duties included advocating change within the nursing field. This stayed with her until her retirement in 1986.

In June of 1993, tragedy struck in Veronica's life. Her son Joseph Antonio Hasfal, Jr. died suddenly. In spite of the loss of her beloved son, she continued doing the things she loved by spending time in the church, ushering, singing in the choir and helping out with the youth ministry. Veronica was very enveloped in all church events and outings.

Veronica Hurlock is survived by: her sister, Lidya Cooper, her grandchildren, Veronica Tillar, Christopher Hasfal, Sharon Hasfal, Veronica Hasfal, Tonyal Hasfal-Rouchdi and Josephine Hasfal-St. Louis; three grandsons-in-law; four great-grandchildren; and her daughter-in-law, Ida Hasfal.

I Am Resting

*I've parted this life my loved one,
But worry not for I am not gone,
I am merely resting.
Don't cry or mourn*

For God is with you and in your hearts.

Carry on.

*We will miss each other,
But remember God is with us all.*

*Be strong my loved one,
For I am not gone,
but merely resting.*
