Obituary

Cyprian Alexander Lee Pow was born on July 10, 1945 in Port-of-Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, West Indies to Rose Mary Lee Pow and John Robert Lee Pow (deceased).

As a young child, Cyprian attended Nelson Street Boys R.C. Elementary School, Cumana R.C. Primary School and Progressive High School. After graduating High School, he learned Auto Engineering at Hub Travel Limited. He studied accounting at La Salle University, after which, he worked at various companies as an Accountant.

In 1978, he migrated to Montclair, NJ. He further pursued his Accounting career by attending Montclair State University where he attained a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting and worked at Johnson Buick and Allied Chemical.

He moved to Orlando, Florida in 1995 and worked with Disney Corporation for twenty years.

Cyprian was a conscientious worker, a diligent professional and a true humanitarian.

To his parents, he was a loving and respectable son. To his brothers and sisters, he was a dependable, loving, an ardent listener, trustworthy and very protective.

He leaves to mourn: his loving mother, Rose Mary Lee Pow of Montclair; his aunt, Daisy Joseph of Montclair; his aunt Josephine Jesse of Florida; his brothers, Chan, Anthony, Wilfred, Vernon, Gregory and Robert; his sisters, Dianne Sterling, Marilyn Kelly, Pamela Ayoung, Charmaine Thompson and Sharon Shanks; twenty-five nieces and nephews, sixteen grand nieces and nephews; and a host of many cousins and friends.

My Farewell

*Our family circle has been broken; a link has gone from our chain
But though we are parted for a while,
We know we will meet again.
Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be,
but there is a reason for it all, beyond our power to see.
The cover of life's book is closed for one we loved so well;
But the loving deeds of
by-gone days are what the pages tell.
The blow was hard, the shock severe;
We never thought your death was so near.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.*

Lonely Is The Home Without You

*Lonely is the home without you,
Life to us is not the same;
All the world would be like Heaven,
If we could have you back again.
A light from our household gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.
May the God of Love and Mercy,
Care our loved one who is gone,
And bless with consolation,
Those left to carry on.
The happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still
But death has left a vacant place,
This world can never fill.
How dearly we loved you,
And prayed you might live,
But Jesus just beckoned,
And we had to give.
God gave us strength to bear it,
And courage to fight the blow,
What it has meant to lose you,
God alone will ever know.*
