Obituary

God saw he was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around Him
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched
And saw him fade away
Although we loved him dearly
We could not make him stay

William Lee Meachem Jr., A.K.A. "FAT MAN" was born on February 9, 1976, in New York, NY at Metropolitan Hospital. He was the son of Anna Meachem and William Lee Meachem, Sr.

William resided in New York, NY where he received his Commercial Driver's License. He drove Para Ambulances for the elderly and handicapped. He also drove a truck at his most recent job for the Baldor Trucking Company. He had a passion for driving.

He loved music, whenever there was a family gathering. He was always helpful. He had an unforgettable laugh and always took pleasure in cooking and eating.

William departed this life on Sunday, August 19, 2012. His presence will surely be missed by all who knew and loved him. Family and friends, through faith, may find comfort in their thoughts of him experiencing no pain or sorrow. But finally being at peace.

William is survived by: his mother, Anna Meachem; father, William Lee Meachem Sr.; wife, Jennifer Meachem; daughter, Nyasia Meachem; brother, Tyriek Bell; aunts, Sabrina Frith, Renee Frith and Regina McPhaul; uncles, James Hill and James Beasley; grandfather, John Travis; grandmother, Minnie Meachem; and a host of close relatives and friends.

Serenity Prayer

*GOD, grant me the Serenity
to accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can, and the Wisdom to know the difference.*

Living one day at a time;

Enjoying one moment at a time;

Accepting hardship as the pathway to peace.

Taking, as He did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His Will;

That I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever in the next.

Amen
