Eulogy

Mavis Williams, better known as “Miss May” was born to the late Stanford Coley and Anita Roberts on August 18, 1923 in Siloah, ST. Elizabeth Jamaica, W. I. She married the late Samuel Williams and was the mother of five children, three sons preceded her in death.

Miss May began her career as a self employed sales person. In the late 1960's she would travel back and forth from Jamaica, W.I. to the USA, finally residing in Brooklyn, NY in the 1970's pursuing a career in the health care field.

Miss May had a very quiet and charming personality. She was down to earth, easy to talk to and easy to get along with. She comforted others with encouraging words and those who were touched by her understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quality of time in which one lives.

In June of 1994 she retired. She resided in Jamaica during the winter months but would return to NY yearly during the warmer weather. She enjoyed comedy and having a good laugh. One of her favorite Jamaican Comedians being Oliver. She was very outgoing, and also enjoyed sitting outside doing puzzles or reading. She also liked watching television.

Miss May leaves to mourn: her two daughters, Dorothy and Fay; one daughter-in-law, Vesper; twelve grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one brother, Joseph; a host of other loving family members and friends.

*To all she gave love, hope and encouragement.
She reminded us of the preciousness of life.
For this she will always be greatly missed.*

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
