Don't

Don't spend too much time in mourning,

Tears are for the sad;

I left to be with my creator

And this should make you glad.

Don't waste your hours in grieving,

No need to feel distress;

I'm tired of life's frustrations

And had to get some rest.

Don't puzzle yourself with questions

Or try to reason why

Life here for me was ended,

It came my time to die.

Don't lose the love I gave you

Feed it with your care;

Grow it with devotion

And spread it everywhere.

Don't fret because my leaving

Came in such a way;

We'll have another meeting

In God's eternal day.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Sheila Joan Williams, a lifelong resident of Jersey City, was born December 10, 1952 to the late Lawrence Elijah Williams and Mary L. Williams. Sheila entered into eternal rest on Tuesday, August 21, 2012 at the age of fifty-nine.

Sheila was educated in the Jersey City School system and was employed with the Jersey City WIC Program for thirty-seven years.

Sheila was an active member and Practitioner of Nichiren Buddhism and was welcomed and well-liked by many because of her pure heart, flexible spirit and open mind. She had a way of expressing insight to understand and connect with others. She will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Sheila was a devoted daughter, a wonderful sister, a loving aunt and a good friend. She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Mary L. Williams; five brothers, Larry (Janice) Williams, of Plainfield, NJ, Anthony Bruce Williams, Ronald Kenneth Williams, Curtis Dean (Tia) Williams and Leon Shariff Williams of Jersey City; five sisters, Deborah Elaine Austin of East Orange, NJ; Karen Joyce (Reginald) Bailey of Richmond, VA, Shonette Marie Holmes of Lawrenceville, GA, Linda Diane Williams of Jersey City, NJ and Mary Yvette Williams of Vauxhall, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and dear friends.
