Obituary

Marie Hannah was born in Harlem Hospital, New York on October 24, 1927 to the late William Hart and Luella Felder.

Marie received her formal education in the New York Public School system and at an early age she gave her life to the Lord. She was baptized at Holy Trinity Baptist Church under the late Reverend Dr. Thomas Harten and in 1967; she became a member of Calvary Baptist Church under the late Rev. Penn.

In 1964, Marie was joined in marriage to the late Solomon Hannah and to this union two children were born.

Marie was employed at the Ben Russ Watch Co., and Bulova Watch Co., until she retired in 1978. Marie was instrumental in spreading the word of Jesus Christ to foster children and felt it was her mission to teach them how to be Christian ladies by taking them to church and exposing them to Broadway plays and the best restaurants. She believed in the motto, “when you know better, you do better”.

Marie went home to be with Christ on August 25, 2012, and was preceded in death by her husband, Solomon Hannah and son, Melvin Hannah.

She leaves to cherish wonderful memories to her son Lawrence Hannah, three granddaughters; Leah Marie Hannah, Lori Katherine Hannah and Melissa Lindsay Hannah, two great grandchildren; Austin Perry Johnson and Amelia Marie Johnson, two twin brothers; Alvin Felder and Norman Felder, two sisters; Anna Loretta Ferguson and Lulamae McNair, two sisters-in-law; Elizabeth Kidd and Margie Felder, and a host of nieces and nephews. She also leaves to cherish; a host of special friends.

Mother,

It brought me great joy to provide you with your flowers while you were still alive. Farewell, but this is not goodbye. For I will see you later but until that time, send my love to my father and my beloved brother Melvin, who are always in my thoughts and let them know that I miss them more than words can convey.

Love always, your son

Lawrence
