Obituary

Saunseray (Ray Ray) Tralonsa Williams was born July 5, 1971, a beautiful baby girl to Lorene and Vernon Williams at Martland Hospital in Newark, New Jersey. Saunseray, meaning morning star, was truly heaven sent.

Ray Ray attended Franklin School and Irvington School District. Although she did not graduate high school she did proudly receive her G.E.D.

Ray Ray was fun loving, outgoing, kind and warm. She was giving, a real sweetheart in every sense of the word. She cared for, loved and adored her family. She cherished her friendships and was genuinely loved by all.

Saunseray was a beautiful and strong individual. Her strength shone ever so much as a single parent. Being both mommy and daddy, to her children, Ray Ray was hands down the most loving and devoted mother and grandmother. There was nothing more beautiful than what she shared with her grandchildren.

Do not grieve for Ray Ray. She is at peace and in her glory. We must now look to each other as she did and remember that she loved each one of us. She smiled, laughed and played with us. So in your heart, keep the fond memories. Even though she did not know all the words,

Remember her singing songs

Remember her forever twenty-three (she said she'd always be twenty-three)

Remember her the way she was

Remember who she was

A loving daughter, sweet and caring sister, amazing aunt and friend, and the most remarkable mother and grandmother. She has left us an uncountable amount of hugs and kisses.

Saunseray leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Nashonda, Natasha and Narae Inman; one son, Karsene Inman, Jr.; her granddaughters; Sijade and Silaiah Inman; a grandson, Axavier Inman; her mother, Lorene Williams; sisters, Celeste L. Campbell, Tomara Hatten, Veronica Amber Thomas and Vanessa Crystal Williams; brother, Vernon Williams, III; her brothers-in-law, Owen Campbell, Sr. and Shontay Thomas; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Saunseray Tralonsa Williams has joined in eternity her father, Vernon Williams, Jr. as well as a brother, Jerome Williams.

Dearest Ray Ray

This is not goodbye, this is Just UNTIL...

God Saw

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me"
With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.
