

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
 My loved ones, oh so dear.
 But you see, the Master called me,
 His voice was very clear!
 I had made my reservation
 A heaven bound ticket for one,
 And I knew that He would call me
 When He felt my work was done.
 I know that your hearts are heavy
 Because I have gone away,
 But when the Master called me,
 I knew that I could not stay.
 Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
 My loved ones, oh so dear,
 But, you see, the Master called me
 And, now I'm resting here.
 Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
 And to you all I say
 Just stay in the hands of Jesus
 And we'll meet again someday.*

Acknowledgements

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
 Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
 Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You,
 Whatever the part. We Thank You for your prayers.*

A special Thanks to Reverend Simmons and Abyssinian Baptist Church.

Obituary

Mother Ellen Estelle Daniels, daughter of the late William Little and Erma Highsmith Little was born on August 31, 1918 in Pitt County, NC.

Ellen departed this life August 28, 2012 at 3:10 a.m. at Summit Ridge Center in West Orange, NJ. She attended school in Pitt County, NC. She met and married the late John L. Daniels and through this union they were blessed with five beautiful children.

Ellen was a faithful member at Belmont Missionary Baptist Church, served as church secretary many years faithfully. She and her family relocated to Newark, NJ for her Nursing Assistant. After receiving her certificate she worked as a Nursing Assistant at United Hospital in Newark, NJ until her retirement.

She was a woman of few words but powerful when she spoke; her powerful saying were, "Well, Well, it is what it is but not what it ought to be." Her favorite song was "If it ain't one thing it's another."

She became a member of the Original Glorious Church where she served faithfully. She was appointed church mother, she was the oldest mother on the mother board. She served on the nursing guild committee. She had great love for her church under the leadership of her late son, Bishop Levy Daniels.

Ellen was preceded in death by her loving late husband, John L. Daniels, three children, Erma Dell Wright, Curtis Daniels, Bishop Levy Daniels, two granddaughters, Michelle House, Monogail House and one grandson, Darquell Daniels.

Her passing leaves a void for those she loved and cherished: one sister, Ethelene House from Robertsville, NC; three daughters, Evangelist Elsie Little (Lewis) from East Orange, NJ, Jameelah Uqdah (Frank) from Deltona, FL, Gwendolyn Kellam (Wali) from Maplewood, NJ; two daughters-in-law, Pastor Margaret Daniels from East Orange, NJ, Addie Pearl Daniels from Danbury, CT; twenty-five grandchildren; twenty-nine great grandchildren; seventeen great great grandchildren; and a host of nieces,
