Obituary

Laura Pauline Clark was born November 7, 1921 to Simpson Lawrence Jr. and Willie Green Dodson in Clarksburg, West Virginia. “Pauline” as everyone knew her was one of six children, four brothers, Clarence, Leonard, George and Robert, one sister, Catherine. All have preceded her in death.

Pauline attended the “Kelly Miller School” in Clarksburg, West Virginia and later moved to the Bronx, New York in 1933. She continued her education in NYC and following her dreams attended Cosmetology School. After completion she went into partnership and opened “La Maison De Glamore” Beauty Salon.

Pauline graduated from “The Purdue Beauty School” in October of 1957, and acquired full ownership of “La Maison De Glamore” in 1967. She purchased her home in 1968 and paid it off in full in the late 1980’s. She also retired in the late 1980’s but continued to do hair in her home, for a few select customers.

Pauline loved traveling, fishing and the outdoors. She enjoyed taking her niece and great nephew on different road trips. She took great pride in gardening and loved cooking and entertaining with family and friends. She volunteered several days a week, working and helping others in Nursing Homes. Always soft spoken and easy going but she could be tough when needed. After years of ailment, God quietly called her home on Wednesday, August 29, 2012.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
