Alone

*I am alone, myself in my own keeping Until the end. I'm my own grave sleeping.
Shall no longer hear your voice nor see your face. Yet shall I hear, yet see. In what ever place while my soul presses to new and lonely birth You, I shall hear, shall see though you walk the earth.*
