Reflections of Life

Eulah Mae Robertson was born on April 25, 1930 in Pendleton, North Carolina to the late Ollie and David Vincent.

Eulah attended Willis Hare High School in Pendleton, NC. Eulah later moved to Paterson, NJ where she lived for more than forty years. Eulah worked for Paterson Public School #10 and North Jersey Developmental Center in Wayne, NJ.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John Robertson; one daughter, Dorothy Ponton and one brother, Otler Vincent.

Eulah Robertson, in body and spirit was a resident of this earth serving her God and family. Her spirit was welcomed into eternal rest on Sunday, September 9, 2012.

Eulah leaves to cherish precious memories: two grandsons, Dexter and Terrence Ponton; two great grandchildren, Jaylen and Tumashye Ponton; as well as a host of relatives and friends.

Recessional

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
