Obituary

Thomasena Major was born on May 21, 1933 in Brooklyn, New York to the late Thomas and Artrelle Priolenau.

She received her formal education through the New York City public school system. She continued her education at York College, earning a Bachelor's degree in Economics and Business Administration.

In 1952 Thomasena was joined in matrimony to the late Otis Major Jr., and within this loving union two sons and a daughter were born.

She lived a vivid life, traveling the world, and going on many adventures with her grandchildren.

Thomasena was employed at the St. Albans VA Hospital, from where she retired after a dedicated twenty-two years in 1993. She made the most of her retirement by doing the things she truly enjoyed; which included shopping, and spoiling the loves of her life...her great-grandchildren.

She leaves here on Earth to cherish wonderful memories; her sons, Otis III (Deborah) and Dwayne (Rosita), her daughter, Shelley; grandchildren, Giovanni, Otis IV (Jamieshah), Natasha, and Shantel (Marlon); great-grandchildren, Neveah and Tourance; sisters, Gertrude and Barbara; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She is preceded in death by her late husband, Otis Major Jr. and her brother, Thomas Priolenau Jr.

Mother,
In tears we saw you sinking,
We watched you fade away,
Our hearts were broken,
You fought so hard to stay,
But when we saw you sleeping, So peacefully
free from pain,
We could not wish you back, To suffer that again. My dear mother, my best friend, you will be missed....thank you for showing us love, affection, honor, faith, humor, togetherness and strength....

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to them during this time of bereavement.

May God bless and Keep you.
