Obituary

Douglas Bolling was born November 28, 1955 to the late Mamie Bolling and Christopher Colvin. He departed this earth September 5, 2012 at peace with his God. His early life was surrounded by a large family of loving siblings, cousins and friends. The loving and caring nurturing of “Momma” and stepfather, Claude Taylor transitioned Douglas into a fine young man. His love for family was instilled in his early life and he truly impressed his love for The Family from the youngest to the oldest.

He attended school at Harlem’s School I.S. 10 and later going on to Brandeis High School. He grew into a young man of strong valued and integrity that Momma and Claude be proud of. He expressed a genuine love for family and friends in every aspect of his life. Affectionately known as “Dougie Doug”, he enjoyed hanging out in Harlem with his long-time best friend (cuz), Teddy Croker. Family gatherings, cookouts, laughing, joking and just plain being around family was Dougie’s true joy in life.

Douglas was predeceased by the late Mamie Taulor-Bolling, Christopher Colvin and Claude Taylor, sisters, Harriet and Janie Bolling.

He leaves to mourn: sister, Delores Bolling; four brothers, Timothy Colvin, Adonis (Donut) Bolling, Donald Bolling and Anthony (Tony) Bolling; sisters-in-law, Patricia, Diane and Stacey; his godson, Brandon; dear friend, Teddy Crocker and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members and friends.

Dougie, you were a trooper to the end. Maintaining and accepting your illness with resilience, courage and strength. A true soldier in Allah’s (God) army your battle has been won you now rest in the presence of your lord. We will always celebrate your loving memories and you will be truly missed we love you for ever and ever and ever!

*Yes, I am so very happy,
With this new life I have found.
I'm the peaceful summer breeze,
That flows softly through the trees.*

*I'm the blue bird in the sky,
That sings with such ease.*

*Yes, I am so very happy,
So happy to be free.*

*Understand my family and friends
and don't you cry for me.*
