Obituary

Rev. Mildred Williams was born on July 31, 1933 in Cataula, Georgia. She was the tenth child born to Judge and Pearlie Farley. She was educated in the Georgia School System.

At an early age she married the late James Louis Williams. Their union was on March 11, 1956. From this marriage two children were born, the late Elaine Riley and Stan Williams.

Shortly after moving to New York, Mildred Williams joined her late sister, Carrie Walker and brother-in-law, Rev. Curtis Walker at Greater Friendship Baptist Church. She held many positions at the church before she was called in 1990 to become a pastor. Once called she assisted the pastor for many years. On September 8, 2002, Mildred was ordained. In 2004 the late Rev. Curtis Walker asked her to take the pastor position. Mildred faithfully held this position until 2008. Rev. Mildred was then called to join Advance Baptist Church. She served there faithfully until she became ill.

She leaves to mourn: a son, Stan Williams; two grandchildren, Antonio and Darnell Riley; a sister-in-law, Julia McDaniel; nieces, nephews, church family and a host of family and friends.

Psalm 121

*I will lift up my eyes to the hills
From whence comes my help?
My help comes from the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.
He will not allow your foot to be moved;
He who keeps you will not slumber.
Behold, He who keeps Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is your keeper;
The Lord is your shade at your right hand.
The sun shall not strike you by day,
Nor the moon by night.
The Lord shall preserve you from all evil;
He shall preserve your soul.
The Lord shall preserve your going out
And your coming in
From this time forth, and even forevermore.*
