Obituary

Lillian Josephine Robinson, affectionately known as “Sissy”, departed this life on Friday, September 14, 2012. Lillian was born to Edward Taylor Sr. and Cornelia (Babe) Taylor, on May 11, 1935. Who predeceased her.

Lillian was the second of nine siblings. She attended Englewood Public Schools and graduated from Dwight Morrow High School.

After graduation, Lillian worked in the garment district in New York City and later met and married the late Gilbert Robinson. From this union came six beautiful children.

Lillian loved the Lord with all her heart and accepted Him as her savior at an early age. In September 2010 she rededicated her life to Christ and was baptized. She attended Bergen Regional Church where Bishop Charles Singletary is overseer.

Time spent with each of her children was a great joy to Lillian. Prayer and fellowship with her daughter Melanie was especially uplifting and she often visited Community Baptist Church of Englewood with her daughter Kellie where she was refreshed by energetic praise and encouraged by the Word of God.

Lillian was known to be a great story teller and somewhat of a family historian as she would recall childhood events and tell each story with such vivid detail that it seemed to place you right in the moment. Her sister, Pauline, would say, “Sissy has a mind like an elephant.”

Lillian believed continually that the Lord was her Sheppard. She’d always say, “If the Lord is with you, everything will be alright.”

Her infectious smile and enthusiastic Heeeeeey! Will always be in the hearts of those she loved.

She was predeceased by her daughter, Hillary Joy and three brothers, Edward Jr., Arthur and Charles Taylor and one sister, Denise Taylor. She will forever be remembered and loved by: her five children, Gilbert Jr., Stewart, Kellie, Evangelist Melanie and Troy; one daughter-in-law, Janelle; five grandchildren, Kevin, Keyani, Stewart II, Nikhi and Marcus; two great-grandchildren, Jaden and Christopher; one sister, Pauline Boxley; three brothers, Frank, Derek and David Taylor; and a host of relatives and friends.

Letter From Heaven

*To my dearest family,
Some things I'd like to say.
But first of all, to let you know.
That I arrived ok,*

*I'm writing this from Heaven.
Here I dwell with God above.
Here, there's no more tears of sadness;
Here is just eternal love.*

*Please do not be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight.
Remember that I am with you,
Every morning, noon and night.*

*And when it's time for you to go...
From that body to be free.
Remember you are not going.
You are coming here to me.*
