Obituary

Dana Wendy Fleurant was born in Harlem, New York to the parents of Florence Cherry and Jean E. Fleurant on January 18, 1988. She was the third born of six children.

Graduating from Hostos Lincoln Academy of Science High School and continuing her education at John Jay College in completing her Bachelor Degree. Dana participated in multiple clubs throughout high school and college that made an impact to both the school and public.

Dana had no specific religion belief but she believed that there was someone watching over us and that what you give out to the universe is somehow returned to us.

Dana believed in making a differences internationally. She believed that everyone deserved a chance whether it's working with animals or children. She believed that one person at a time can make a difference in the world.

Dana touched many lives, even by meeting her for a few minutes and will be surely missed by all. We will always love you and miss you. We know that Dana will always survive in our hearts and we will keep her legacy alive of reaching our dream.

She leaves behind: a host of friends that are considered family and blood related relatives.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
