

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Obituary

Lisa Marie Diggs was born on July 10, 1953. She was the first child of William Diggs and Marie Irby. Being their first child she was truly loved and adored by her parents and their respective in-laws.

Later Marie gave birth to Lisa's siblings Michael, the middle child and Carrie the youngest child. After she finished community College Lisa took a job as a Telemarketer. During her time with that company she would make and forge friendships with her co-workers that would last a lifetime. These friends proved valuable when she had to bury her baby sister, Carrie and later on her mother, Marie.

Lisa is survived by: her brother, Michael; her good friend, Oliver Jennings; her cousin, Connie; and friends, Anita and Yvette.

*Lisa you will forever be remembered as a beautiful person who gave all she could to those she loved.
We will miss you so much.*
