Reflections of Life

Mother Flora L. Williams was born on April 15, 1927 to Darling and Mary Manerva HoHage-Stewart in Macon, GA. At twelve years old, Flora, also known a “Pat”, and her siblings relocated to Newark, NJ along with their father. She and her eldest brother assisted in raising their younger siblings. In August of 1948, at age twenty-one, she got married to James B. Williams; later moving to the “Central Ward” of Newark within Hayes Homes, where she raised her five children.

Flora attended an alternative school in Newark, NJ. Flora was employed at The Laxter Factory, The Pickle Factory, Willie’s Fish & Chips; her Brother’s Restaurant on 16th Avenue and Imin’s Restaurant near Newark Airport all in Newark as well as Central Laundry in Jersey City.

Flora loved to have a good time, she was a warm-hearted, loving, caring and thankful person. She was very outspoken and had a strong mind. She didn't hesitate to speak for an unjust, which led to others to love and respect her more.

She was known for her "good cooking" especially on holidays and gathering with family and friends. She enjoyed being creative with arts and crafts such as painting, making jewelry, and dolls. She had a passion in decorating her home dressing up "Fabulous" for special occasions or church. She was a faithful member of Christian Pentecostal Church in Irvington, NJ. Mother Flora Williams was known for her "unique but beautiful" hats, jewelry and purses.

Flora leaves to cherish her memory: her brother, Roosevelt (Jack) Stewart; her husband, James B. Williams, Sr.; her children, James, Jr., John, Jacqueline, Deborah and Larry Williams; nine grandchildren; fourteen great grandchildren; one great great grandchild; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many close friends.

Flora was predeceased by her siblings, Darling

God's Garden

*God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He placed His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He saw the road was getting rough
and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your eyes and whispered
"Peace be Thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
but you did not go alone,
a part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
If love would have saved you,
you never would have died.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You, Whatever the part.
