Obituary

Dollie Mae Butler was born on May 13, 1920 in Macon, Georgia. She attended the Macon County School system completing the eighth grade.

For a better life her Mother sent Dollie to New Jersey in 1938. There she met close friends Vivian Rich (Deceased) and Edith Golden (Deceased). They all shared an apartment and worked together at Singers Sewing Machine Company. During her time at Singers is where she met her beloved husband.

On August 8, 1950, Dollie was joined in holy matrimony to Fred Butler by Rev. Frasier in Elizabeth, New Jersey. This union was blessed with three sons: Julius, Stanford and Fred and five daughters: Gloria, Patricia, Wanda, Dollie and Robin and step-daughter Freddie Mae Butler.

In 1954, Dollie and Fred moved to Linden, New Jersey. There she joined First Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Samuel E. Shell, Jr. There she was a member of the Women's Club and the choir.

Dollie became an extended Mother of Carnegie Street and the Community with her love for entertaining and serving others. This was accomplished through the many Cookouts and Holiday Parties hosted at 612 Carnegie Street.

Dollie enjoyed her work as a Domestic Engineer and especially enjoyed working for Chester M. Brown, CEO of the Allied Chemical Company, and Phil "Scooter" Rizzuto former New York Yankee Shortstop and announcer.

Dollie made a lot of friends and was well liked where ever she went.

Dollie Mae Butler departed this life on Saturday, September 29, 2012 at the age of 92 with family by her side. She was at the Center for Hope Hospice in Scotch Plains, New Jersey when the Lord called her Home. She was predeceased by her parents, Mattie Parker Jackson and Cornelius Jackson; her husband, Freddie Lee Butler; siblings, Leon, Benjamin and Pearl Jackson; and daughter-in-law, Audrey Butler.

She leaves to cherish fond memories, three sons, Julius Butler of Neptune, New Jersey, Stanford Butler of Rahway, New Jersey and Fred Butler of Mount Bethel, Pennsylvania; five daughters, Gloria Richmond (Talton) of Macon, Georgia, Patricia Butler-Hall (Charles) of Sandersville, Georgia, Wanda D. King of Bloomfield, New Jersey, Dollie S. Hamlin of Plainfield, New Jersey and Robin Archie of Groveville, New Jersey; step-daughter, Freddie Mae Butler of Hamilton, New Jersey; loving brother, William Lewis Jackson (Virginia) of Sandersville, Georgia; God daughter, Allyson Keith of Edgewater Park, New Jersey; 20 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; a loving daughter-in-law, Joyce Butler of Mount Bethel, Pennsylvania; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Lovingly and sorrowfully submitted,
The Family*

*Sit down beneath his shadow
And rest with great delight;
The faith that now beholds Him
Exceeding great and free;
Lift up the heart in gladness
For he remembers thee.
A little while though parted
Remember, Wait and Love
Until He comes in glory,
Until we meet above.
Fill in the Father's Kingdom
The heavenly feast is spread,
And we behold His beauty
Whose blood for us was shed,
Sleep on Mother and take your rest
We loved you but God loved you best*

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.*

*In life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you,
you did not go alone.*

*For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.*

*You left us peaceful memories,
your love is still our guide.*

*And though we cannot see you,
you are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.*

*But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.*
