

Mom

*No matter what I do today,
Or where the future
Takes me tomorrow
I promise to remember
All the things you've taught me
And how very much
You loved me.
Sometimes I didn't always say it
But you always knew it
That you are my world,
My best friend, My true love,
My heart I love you and will always love you forever
MOMMY!!!*

Obituary

Sheila Ardel Duncan was born on January 12, 1949 to the late John and Thelma Duncan. Her untimely departure was on September 27, 2012. She was born and raised in Harlem, New York where she attended New York City Public schools and graduated from Julia Richmond High School.

Sheila worked for MABSTOA (New York City Transit Authority) as a procurement specialist for twenty-eight years. She was also an active member of the community based organization ACORN.

Sheila partnered with her sisters to host annual summer Crabfest bus trips in which she enjoyed wholeheartedly. Most of all Sheila's life was dedicated to loving and being a support system for her only child and her grandchildren. She leaves her grandchildren to cherish many memories of her love and warm spirit. Sheila was a wonderful person.

We will miss Sheila's cooking especially her cornbread, mac n cheese famous mixed salad and collard greens, but most of all her exhilarating smile. We all must reflect on the many memories we have had with Sheila and know she will always be smiling down on us.

Sheila is survived by: her only daughter Shante; son-in-law, Jahard; four grandchildren, Azhane and Sanayah, Jahard and Mahogany; three sisters, Jacqueline, Patice and Vivian; one brother, Glenn; one sister-in-law Marilyn; six nieces, Harriet, Maria, Yvonne, Lakisha, Nicole and Fatima; four nephews, Kenneth, Michael, LaVar and John; two nephews-in-law, Dwayne and Jeff; one uncle, Hezzie; three aunts, Theresa, Lucille and Thomasina; two godchildren; godson, Leroy Perkins; goddaughter, Wanda Moss and a host of grandnieces, grandnephews, other relatives and friends. Also proceeded in death by her sister, Earline Duncan.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family
