Obituary

Annie May Morgan passed away peacefully October 2, 2012, at home with her family by her side. She was born March 6, 1932 to the late Willie Morgan and Maggie Simpkins. Her father remarried and raised her with her late Step- Mother Louise Hart Morgan. Annie graduated from Schofield High School in Aiken, SC in 1949 and attended 2nd Baptist Church. During the 1950's she relocated to New York and resided in Queens.

In 2004, she retired after twenty plus years of service as a Housekeeper/Nanny for Mr.& Mrs. Thomas Moody in Garden City, NY. She was an active member of her community, and the Treasurer of her neighborhood Tenant Association.

Known to those close to her and that loved her as “Ann”, “Nana”, “Grandma” or “Aunt Sister”. She was loving, kind-hearted, yet feisty, and known to speak her mind. Behind her tough exterior was a gentle soul that stood firm on her beliefs. Wherever Annie went she made friends and left a lasting impression, especially due to sense of humor. She was called “Grandma” and loved by those young and old in her neighborhood because of all the hearts she touched. Selfless, she devoted most of her time and energy as a caregiver to family members.

Her unique spirit will be missed by all that knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her two children, Ronald Morgan, and Brendolyn L. Morgan; eight grandchildren, Diana T. McGee, Letisha L. Morgan, Ronald Morgan Jr., Rason M. Mack, Tammy S. Morgan, Tymel R. Morgan, Keenon Morgan, and Sean Burell; eight great-grandchildren, one great great granddaughter, and a host of family and friends.

“The Day God Took You Home”

In tears we saw you sinking,
And watched you pass away.
Our hearts were almost broken,
We wanted you to stay.
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful, free from pain,
How could we wish you back with us,
To suffer that again. It broke our hearts to lose you, But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.

God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be.
He wrapped her in his loving arms and whispered “Come with me.”
She suffered much in silence, her spirit did not bend.
She faced her pain with courage, until the very end.
She tried so hard to stay with us but her fight was not in vain,
God took her to His loving home and freed her from the pain.
Love Always, Brendolyn, Diana, Jeremiah, Tazaqua,
Destiny, Raziq, & Priya- Janai
