Obituary

James Lee Mitchell, known by his close friends and family simply as “PeeWee” lived an honorable and full of life. Returned back to his creator on Friday, September 28, 2012.

James was born in Milledgeville, Georgia on October 13, 1949. His mother and father were James Mitchell and Louise Gordon, but he was raised by his grandmother, Rawline Gordon. James enjoyed the company of his close family and friends. He was close to his sister, Geraldine Mitchell. James was always a smiley person as a child. He graduated from JF Boddie High School, Milledgeville and continued his schooling career at Milledgeville and Essex County College. He would then go on to follow his medical career at Cabrini Medical Center, which he worked for eighteen years, until he went into a different business ideal. From there he would open his own business in Freelance Awning. He freelanced for a short amount of time.

James took care of nearly twenty kids. He loved to see the smile on the faces of the children he helped. A honest soul and a lovely heart. Almost as big as his smile he gave till it hurt, showing his love for children and the care he gave for them, giving his all to the cause.

For all that knew James, knew how he lived his life, without regrets and sorrow. For he did everything he wanted, was right. He lived his life with a smile and everyday he woke up, the sun rose, and finally when his eyes closed and the sunset with him.

He leaves to cherish his memories: two brothers, Francis C. Wiggins and James C. Mitchell; eleven sisters, Betty M. Boyd, Faye Gotell, Teresa Van Choates, Shirly B. Rivers, Carolyn Lattimore, Carolyn Rivers, Shirlery A. Mitchell, Geraldine Mitchell, Penny L. Mitchell, Lori A. Mitchell and Pamela D. Mitchell; his children, Anjamilah Gregory, Jamal Gregory, Jihaad North, Samad North, Basimah North, Latif North, Rasheed Gregory, Abdul Lateef Mitchell, James Edward Mitchell, Aron Mitchell and Antwan Eddie Mitchell; one aunt, Eva Mae Harden of Atlanta, Georgia; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

No Farewell

No Farewell words were spoken

No time to say good-bye

You were gone before I knew it,

And only God knows why

My Heart still aches in sadness

And secret tears still flow

What it meant to lose you

No one will ever know

~Your Sister Geraldine

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever
