Obituary

Nigel F. Bloomfield, Jr. was born June 16, 1972, in Kingston Jamaica, W.I., to proud parents, Nigel and Sonia Bloomfield. He attended Melrose all age School while residing in Kingston. He migrated to the Bronx, NY in 1983 where he attended Junior High School 143 then Clinton High School. He went to LaGuardia Community College and obtained his A.S. in Liberal Arts then on to Lehman College where he obtained his B.A. in Recreational Therapy. While working both a full time and part time job, Nigel was currently attending Lehman College in an accelerated two year program where he was in the process of obtaining his M.A. in Social Work and set to graduate in June of 2013.

While attending LaGuardia Community College in the spring of 1991 Nigel met Renee V. Padilla whom he married on August 25, 2001. They provided a loving home for their two children, Gabrielle and Ryan in Queens, NY. Nigel was a PHENOMENAL father and a SUPERB husband who loved his family with all of his heart and then some. He enjoyed reading, writing, researching his spirituality and his true purpose in life. Most of all he enjoyed spending quality time with both his children and wife.

Nigel had a tremendous amount of love and respect for his parents. He used what his parents taught him in every aspect of his life. How they lived their lives together was Nigel's guidebook of where he wanted to go and whom he wanted to be. Coming from such a modest and upstanding family taught him to stay grounded and always thankful.

Nigel was a man of integrity and was very spiritual. He prayed several times throughout the day and was a God fearing man. He shared his spiritual wisdom with others and was also enlightened by others beliefs and how it tied into his own. Nigel was inspiring and always willing to lend a helping hand no matter the state of affairs. He spoke eloquently and with passion and respect to all. Nigel was a gentle and peaceful man, quick to listen and slow to speak. He had a great sense of humor that he often didn't share with everyone, but to know Nigel was to simply love and adore him. He will be missed but certainly not forgotten.

Nigel leaves to cherish his memory; his wife, Renee; their two children, Gabrielle and Ryan; his parents, Nigel Sr. and Sonia; brother, Eric Martin; mother-in-law, Hazel Padilla, (in-laws, Hilliard's and Padilla's) and a host of aunts, uncles, numerous cousins, colleagues and friends.

Selfishly we all Love you but God Loves you Best. Rest in Peace Always...

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God;
in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand;
but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the Lord,
which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:

the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him:

I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
