Obituary

Marvin Easter was born to the late Moses Easter and Nellie Watford Easter on September 13, 1942 in Newark, NJ. He attended Newark Public Schools before enlisting in the army where he earned his high school diploma.

Marvin had the opportunity to work for several employers including a leather company and Johnson and Johnson. He retired for the US Postal Service in 2007.

Marvin accepted the personal invitation from Jehovah God to become a dedicated servant of His. He symbolized that dedication by water baptism as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on June 13, 2009. He was sincerely happy with his association with Jehovah's God's organized people and he worked hard to please Jehovah. Marvin came to realize that our sole purpose in life is to do the will of Jehovah God and share God's purpose for mankind with others.

Marvin is survived by: his wife, Carolyn; his three sons, Marvin, Jr., Marlin and Keith; his two daughters, Lenora Livingston and Evelyn Jones; his brother, Moses; his two sisters, Maraqrute Howard and Lenora McDaniels; one step-daughter, Pauline Kelly. He is also survived by: his daughters-in-law, his sons-in-law, his sisters and brothers-in-law and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,

We Thank You, Whatever the part.

My Father, My God and Friend

(Hebrews 6:10)

*Life in this world can be hard.
Life in this world can bring tears and pain.
Still everyday I will say, "My life is not in vain."*

Chorus:

*For God is not unrighteous,
And he remembers the love I've shown.*

*So he is ever near me;
With Jehovah, I'm not alone.
Yes, God is my provider and my protector down to the end.*

Yes, Jehovah is my Father, My God and Friend.

*Gone are days of my youth;
Days of calamity now are here.
Still through the eyes of my faith,
My hope is bright and clear.*

Chorus
