Obituary

On May 25, 1933, Eula Lee Green was born in Elloree, South Carolina to the late Leanna Green and James Green. She graduated from Wilkinson High School in Orangeburg, South Carolina. Shortly after graduating high school, Eula and her four sisters moved to New York City and made their home in Harlem. She graduated from Benjamin Franklin Trade School and received her certificate as a seamstress.

At the tender age of twenty-two, mom met and married her beloved husband (Robert Lee Steele who preceded her in death) on July 17, 1973. Out of their loving union came five beautiful children, Lloyd, Beverly, Theresa, Mary and Sharon until Roberts' untimely death. They were married for fifty-one years.

Eula Lee Steele was affectionately known as "Mom" and "Schulum" and was one of a kind. Mom was a housewife who took care of her kids. Mom enjoyed sewing and she made clothes for all of her kids. Eula was the Queen of babysitting throughout her family. She took care of her kids, their kids, their kids kids, her family's kids, their kids and their kids kids. In addition to babysitting and sewing, she also loved to cook. Moms' cooking was finger licking and made you wanna slap your mother good!!

Mom was a woman who loved her family dearly. She along with her husband, helped raise their grandchildren. Mom was the kind of grandmother who gave us hard knock loving . For example: when mom gave us a curfew, and she said to be in the house by 8 o'clock, she meant 8 o'clock not 8:01 or 8:02 and if you broke curfew, she would be at the door or elevator waiting for you!!

Moms' affection wasn't always shown through hugs & kisses, it was shown through her strength.

In 2006, moms' health began to deteriorate and she had many health issues in which she suffered a mild stroke and was unable to walk and was confined to a wheelchair, while still trying to stay strong.

The matriarch of the Steele family was gloriously called home to her Savior on October 4, 2012.

Mom was a woman of pride, courage, humor, family morals and formidable strength.

Mom was preceded in death by her sisters, Geneva Randolph, Alzator Green, Thelma Dalrymple and one brother, James Green Jr.

Mom leaves to cherish her memory: one sister, Eartha Cintron; four daughters, Beverly, Theresa, Mary and Sharon; three sons, Lloyd (late), Stanley and Brian; one son-in-law, Bosco; one daughter-in-law, Jane; fourteen grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

*Mom, we love you and we miss you
But we will never forget you

Fly On To Heaven

Fly on to heaven, fly high, fly free, take your place with God and your long lost family. On this earth you are a sister, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and mother-in-law. You eased all our tears with your great spirit and calm hands. No more hurt, no more pain, you floated to heaven and gained PEACE. Even though we will miss you And it hurts more than we can stand, we know you are care free and in God's hands. Can't wait to see you again. You will always be loved and missed.
