

We Are All God's Children
We are all God's children
From the morning hour of birth
He lets us live and laugh and love
And have our day on earth;
He guards us through the afternoon
Till sunset's rays are cast
Then one by one
With gentle words
He calls us home at last!!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever

Obituary

Agnes Marie Arnold was born on December 11, 1934 to the late Elijah Burley and Frances (nee: Mason). She was born in Waycross, Georgia, but after the death of her mother Frances, she moved to Newark, New Jersey with her grandparents, the late William and Cornelia Mason. Raised in Newark, she later attended and graduated from South Side High School.

Soon after high school, she bonded with her half-sister, the late Jenny Tillery. Also, following her education, she met and married the late Julian Franklin Arnold, Sr. They were blessed with four children: Frances Arnold-Newlin, Tharien (Karim), Darien, and her first beloved child, the late Julian Franklin Arnold, Jr. (J.J or Jay).

Agnes worked outside the home for a few years, but her primary occupation was homemaker.

Agnes was a woman of God and was very involved with church activities and cultivating her relationship with God. She loved to solve puzzles of all types and enjoyed traveling with her family. She especially enjoyed cruising. Agnes loved animals and made friends everywhere she went. People fell in love with her the moment they met her. She was a beloved daughter, grand-daughter, wife, mother, sister, grandmother, aunt, and a friend to many.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her daughter Frances, sons, Tharien (Karim), and Darien, her grandchildren Juliana Arnold-Rieth, Brittany Arnold, Taraja and Amir Arnold; daughters-in-law, Tracy Cherry-Arnold and Wendy Doman-Arnold; son-in-law Tony Newlin; and a host of other relatives.
