Reflections of Life

On September 22, 1953, Turner Roberts, Jr. was born to the late Turner Roberts II, and the late Betty Roberts Norfleet in Newark, New Jersey.

He was a life long resident of Newark, New Jersey and was educated in Newark Public Schools.

Turner was a soldier in the US Army. He worked for Labors Local 1153 for five years. He was also a Freelance Entrepreneur for many years.

“Jackie” as he was called by his family was tremendously loved by all. His loving spirit will never be forgotten.

He leaves to mourn his passing: five children, Lisa Roberts, Kareem Roberts, the late Samira Roberts, Rozina Roberts and Deyonna Brookins; grandchildren, Jalen Hammonds, Asaida Russell and the late Steven McMillion, Jr.; sisters, Sabrina Roberts, Mrs. Michie Baker, Mrs. Kachite Speller, Mrs. Betty Barnett, Mary L. Lane, Mrs. Cecilia Ash and Mrs. Thomasina Thorn; brothers-in-law, Raymond Baker, Wayne Speller, Carson Barnett and Kyle Ash; sister-in-law, Donna Thorn; step father, Cecil T. Norfleet. He is also blessed to have a great friend in Mr. Barry Dobson to which he considered a brother; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Tribute To Our Brother

Rest now my darling brother your troubles and despair have now subsided.

You possessed a caring and loving soul that had no boundaries. In life you did your best and that's all anyone could ask.

Although you have passed from this life you will always live in our hearts.

We will sorely miss your bright smile and your witty humor, but we also take solace in the fact that one day we will see you again.

*All our Love,
Your Sisters
~Sabrina Roberts*
