Obituary

Arthur M. Abdur-Razzaq, known as Artie, was born July 3, 1940 in Gaston County, North Carolina, to the late Arthur Robinson, Jr. and Roberta Robinson. He was the youngest out of four children, his sisters, Joanne Robinson, Darlene Robinson and Lavaida Robinson.

He was educated in the North Carolina School system. In 1957, he moved to New York, where he met Sarneadd Abdur-Razzaq. On November 4, 1962, Arthur and Sarneadd were united in marriage, from this union they were blessed with eleven children; Mahir, Zaimah, Hanunah, Muqtasid, Qadriyyah, Faheem, Sahirah, Ameer, Hikmah, Umar and Ismail. Arthur lived up to his fatherly duties, not only was he a great provider to his biological family, Arthur looked out for others also. If you were in need of food, money or shelter he would provide it to all in need.

He was known through out the neighborhood as a Volunteer and Handyman.

In 1970, he was an elevator mechanic at the Mount Sinai Hospital. In the 80's Arthur started working for the M.T.A. he retired in 2006.

Arthur joined the Nation of Islam in 1969, under the leadership of Elijah Muhammad Temple #7. He was known as Brother Arthur 33X.
