Obituary

June Ethel Taylor Gilmore daughter of Elyse and Leonard Taylor, was born on March 29, 1959, in New York City, NY and quietly departed on October 5, 2012 at Harlem Hospital. Her childhood years were spent in New York, Virginia, Spain, New Jersey, and California. She attended Marymount College in New York City and Syracuse University.

June had a love of music and fashion. She pursued a career in modeling which fulfilled both of these passions. Many memories of June include concerts, dancing and the latest fashion trends. June enjoyed sharing her love of music and fashion with her family. She loved spending time with her cousins and aunties who had many nicknames for her. JT, Juju, Ma, and Baby are all names that will be lovingly remembered.

June worked as an administrator at Columbia University. During her tenure, she was also instrumental in helping family members attain positions at the university.

June was married to Robert Gilmore for more than ten years and resided in Staten Island, NY where she raised her two sons. She was very caring, kind, and willingly offered a helping hand to serve others. June's compassion was further illustrated by her request to be an organ donor. Her selfless act of kindness has recently enriched and improved a twelve year old boy's life who was the recipient of her liver. In her desire to bring family together, June recently hosted a family reunion; a memorial to grandmother, Mamie Henderson. This event brought many family members together, some who had not seen each other in decades and others who had never met.

June leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Robert; sons, Alex and Taiwo; daughter-in-law, Majorie; grandson, Aiden; sisters, Lisa, Dorie and Khadisha; brothers, Leonard and Emmett; a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews, and nieces; and many extended family members and dear friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
