On October 13, 2012, Oscar Brown, went on to be with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, He whispered his name and welcomed him back to himself.

Oscar, A.K.A Obie, who was born in New York City on August 11, 1941 to the late Mr. and Mrs. James Sadie Brown.

Oscar received his education in New York City at Samuel Gompers High School. When he finished high school in 1959, in that same year Oscar and Sandra were married, within that union of fifty years plus, there were three sons born, Anthony, Oscar Jr. and Michael Ernest Brown. There is also his daughter, Sheila Brown of Mooresville, NC.

Oscar went to work in the Construction Business in 1959 and continued that line of work until 1977. After which he went to work for Consolidated Edison in 1980, Oscar retired in 2005.

Oscar enjoyed life, he also enjoyed family gatherings, he always showed up with his camera or video camera. He was the camera man at these special gatherings. He loved his family, was a dedicated person not only to his family and friends but to his work.

He loved music and loved to dance, always had an amazing smile. Unfortunately he became ill and had to leave this life. He will be missed by many, but the Lord has a better place and plan for his life.

Oscar was a God fearing and faithful husband, father, friend and a God fearing and faithful believer in his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He trusted in the Lord at all times even in his sickness.
