Reflections of Life

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death neither sorrow neither shall there be any more pain.

Revelation 21:4

Emma R. Brown was born January 17, 1941 in Lincolnton, GA the daughter of William and Hercules Wright. She received her education in the local schools graduating from Lincoln County Training School, Lincolnton, GA.

Emma loved the Lord and was a true believer in God. She was a member of the Tabernacle Baptist Church. She was united in holy matrimony in 1961 to Rudolph Brown who preceded her in death.

Emma who moved to Passaic in 1983 and later to Clifton was employed at the Whiffle Tree Inn and later as a caregiver and homemaker until her health failed.

Preceding her in death are a sister, Helen Wright and a special niece, Deborah Wright.

She departed this life on Tuesday, October 16, 2012.

Emma leaves to cherish wonderful memories: three daughters, Cynthia Brown, Queen Brown and Kashonda Wright of Clifton, NJ; one son, Claude Brown of Clifton, NJ; beloved brother, Lester Wright, Sr. of Passaic, NJ; two grandsons, Quincy Brown of Clifton, NJ and Nygiel Brown of Paterson, NJ; special niece and nephew, Gwendolyn Wright and Timothy Wright of Newark, NJ; great nephews, Jahleel Edwards and Jurod Coleman of Paterson, NJ; two aunts, Myrtis Sims of West Orange and Fannie (John) Norman of Thompson, GA; devoted cousins, Reverend Ruby Nazareth and Harvey Hogan of Passaic, NJ; also surviving are a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free Everlasting

Trouble don't last always
Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I have savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me,
God wanted me NOW.
He has set me free everlasting.
