Obituary

Carlos Arnulfo Archbold “Nush” was born on the Island of Providence, Colombia, S.A. on September 21, 1946 to Lisandro Archbold Newball and Ruth Borden de Archbold. Carlos immigrated to the United States in the late 1970’s and settled in Chicago, Illinois. He held a strong bond with his sisters and brothers, especially his sister, Martha. She was the youngest girl and he was the youngest boy. Their special friendship lasted through the years, no matter the distance.

Carlos worked in the hospitality industry for well over thirty years. He began in positions such as restaurant server and room steward on a cruise ship where his high standards and expectations for customer service and doing things only one way, “the right way” were acquired. He worked his way up to the title of Director for employers such as Hyatt, Englewood Hospital and Fairmont, among others. Before Carlos’ retirement in 2011 he worked as the Director of Linen Services at the Fairmont Southampton Hotel in Bermuda.

Anyone who knew Carlos knew that fishing was his number one past time and it didn’t matter if he caught a fish or not! He had favorite fishing spots in New York, New Jersey, Florida, Bermuda and Colombia. Listening to Vallanato music while preparing a big meal for family and friends was another of his favorite ways to spend time. In the last few years, Carlos was able to go “home” to San Andres y Providencia to vacation and visit family several times. He was blessed with two beautiful grandchildren, Chantal and Juan who were the center of his life and love, and a great-grandson, Fermincito.

Carlos passed away on October 18, 2012 at Englewood Hospital in Englewood, NJ. He is survived by: daughters, Indra Archbold Smith and Nicole Archbold; sisters, Martha Archbold Howard, Elma Archbold Huffington and Herminia Archbold; a brother, Rodolfo Archbold Borden. Preceded in death by his mother, father, two sisters and two brothers.

Carlos was known, loved and respected for holding the highest of standards for him and for others, for providing excellent service, fine products, for his generosity and willingness to lend a hand to those who needed it, and for his big smile and hearty laugh. Carlos touched many, many lives and will be missed dearly.

He Is Mindful Of His Own

*I know not what the year will bring,
But this I know, my heart will sing;
For He who gives the gift of years has power to still my doubts and fears.
And if the way be dark or fair,
I shall not doubt God answers prayer.
Though I may walk the depths, of night,
His lamp of Truth shall give me light.
To me there is no foreign land,
For with me is His guiding hand.
And God, Who heeds the sparrow's fall,
will always answer when I call.
I shall go forward, upright, free;
For He will walk the way with me.
I leave this year with God alone,
For He is mindful of His own.*
