Obituary

Maggie B. Middleton was born in Mims, Florida on August 17, 1914 to the late Ulysses Daniels and Adele Knight-Daniels. Maggie went home to be with the Lord on Friday, October 19, 2012 at the age of ninety-eight years.

Maggie grew up in Alabama where she met her late husband John T. Middleton. They were teenage sweethearts. To their marriage was born one daughter, Eva Delores.

Maggie was very active in her church. Missionary President for many years, Adult Sunday School teacher and a member of the Senior Choir in Second Mt. Triumph Baptist Church.

Maggie and John moved to NYC in 1945, they returned to Alabama in 1967. Age and health forced Maggie to return to NYC in the year 2000 to live with her daughter.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Eva; three grandchildren, Delorys (Allen), Henry W. Jr. (Kimberly) and John M.; three great-granddaughters, Khalila, Lauren and Allison; one great-grandson, Ahmad. A loving nephew, Robert (Joyce) and a spiritual sister, Mary B. Jacobs; and loving friends and caretakers, Rachel, Augusta, Joanna, Edie Clark and Shatay. Last but not least a dear god daughter, Alice Williams.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
