Obituary

On September 16, 1978, Lamont King a.k.a. “Tip” was born to Debra Daniels and James King. Lamont earned the name “Tip Toe” because he always walked on his toes. His name was shortened to “Tip” in later years.

Lamont was the youngest of three children. Lamont had a special connection with his brother Josef. They were almost inseparable as children and when you saw one brother, the other brother was close by. They remained in contact with each other as they became adults and went their separate ways.

Lamont received his formal education in New York City Public Schools. He excelled in his school work and was often known as the “class clown.” Although he excelled academically, his real education came from the life he chose to live.

Lamont loved watching sports and could hold a knowledgeable conversation with the best of them. As a child, Lamont ran track with the Road Runners Club in Central Park and won many first place trophies and ribbons for his efforts.

Lamont’s life was not an easy one. He experienced separation from family that caused pain and sorrow, but no matter what Lamont was going through in life, he worked hard not to cause pain and sorrow to others. Lamont had a big, good heart and he helped others whenever he could.

Throughout Lamont’s short life on this earth, he loved and lost many friends and family including his father, James King and his sister, Sheena Daniels. After the death of James King, Lamont was adopted by Debra’s husband Leonard Johnson who gave Lamont a new family that loved him and he loved them in return very much. Lamont and Leonard shared a unique love and respect for each other.

On October 19, 2012, Lamont lost his battle with cancer and was called home by the Lord to rest in peace. He leaves behind to celebrate his life: his mother, Debra Daniels-Johnson; his “Dad” Leonard Johnson; his brother, Josef Daniels; sister, Sharine King; son, Layquan Clarke; daughter, Embraya Frasier; aunts, Linda Poe, Deborah James, Laura Tyler and Deborah King; uncle, Dwight Johnson; niece, Natalia Daniels; nephew, Christian Daniels. He also leaves his relatives from the Daniels family, Johnson family and King family along with a host of friends who will miss him very much.

You were truly loved and will be deeply missed and never forgotten.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
