In 1958, he met his wife, Christine Leah Gregoire whom he cherished and married on April 17th 1960. Christine was the spice of his life. She kept things going when you asked Cecil what kept them going he said true love. Whether he was right or wrong he would not go to bed upset. He strongly believed in making peace before going to bed. Out of that union they had five children, Ramey, Ann, Leslie, Sean and Rachel. He was also the father of Annette Balfour and father-in-law to Desmy Phillip and Mark Morelli. He loved and cherished his six children. He had many nieces and nephews who loved their Uncle Lennox. Cecil loved spending time with his family.

Cecil had a passion for fixing cars. He could tell by the sound of a car what is wrong with it. When he learnt about Jehovah there was no stopping him as his love for Jehovah grew he wanted to share with all who came his way the hope he had for the future. He loved singing kingdom melodies one of his favorite was #91 my father my God my friend. He also loved dancing. He loved cooking and made the best barbecue, corn on the cob and souse while out doing his wife with a smile. He was a quiet kindhearted respectful and a pleasant person to be around and greeted everyone with a smile. He was a good husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, friend and confidant.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
