

Letter From Emily

*Please don't cry for me;
This is a road I must take alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan;
Miss me, but let me go.*

Please cherish the good times we've had.

As your mother, and more.

I am in a better place now;

No more sorrow,

No more pain;

I am free;

Free at last.

*To my family and friends, I wish each one of you a good life.
Please forgive me as I have forgiven you and cherish the love we have.*

I am free, the Lord called upon me and I answered.

He took my hand and He led me to an eternal life.

I will be with the Lord forever.

Goodbye, to my family and friends,

I pray that we will meet again one day.

This is a journey that I must go on alone;

It is all part of the Master's plan.

Praise be to the Lord, in Jesus' Name.

Amen.

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Emily Lorena Narine was born on March 4, 1936 in a village called #2 Canal Polder in West Bank Demerara, Guyana. She was the daughter of Jane Taylor. In 1952 she married Albert Augustus Narine. Emily and her husband immigrated to the U.S. in 1989.

Emily was a dedicated wife, mother, and grandmother. She continued to love and care for her family up until her very last days. She loved to entertain and give advice, from her many experiences as a young woman. Emily was an outspoken woman who did not hold her tongue. People would say "dis woman can talk." But that was what we loved most about her. Her spunk and fiery spirit had more zest than the average person. She was a strong willed woman with a good heart. In the good times and the bad, in her happy days and through her sorrows, she taught us the value of love, family, friendship and life. She would say "ya'll mus live good wid one anotha."

Losing Emily has been truly painful for us because she was a pillar of strength. Our goals were her goals and she would do anything to help us stay on the right path. She was our guiding light, our source of inspiration. Today, we are moved and humbled by having known her. We thank God for her. Her memory will surely live on, in all of our hearts. Although, we shall miss her dearly, let's celebrate her wonderful life. Let's share her memories and make sure that her spirit and love live on in us.

Emily is the mother of ten children, Ingrid (Late), Pansie, Lenox, Gary, Godfrey, Patricia, Angela, Dennis, Patrick and Gregory. Emily is the grandmother of twenty-six grandchildren, Kirby, Marcia, Sonja, Carlotta, Mary, Nalie, Natasha, Wesley, Shervin, Latoya, Kimico, Hasdy, Gary, Winston, Shanta, Tiffany, Rebecca, Marian, Angela, Anthony, Shabana, Andre, Alicia, Corey, Jasmine and Tiffany. Emily has seventeen great grandchildren, Amaya, Natasi, Andre, Nassir, Tyree, Tamar, Layla, Katrina, Cato, Gabriel, Alea, Wesley, Jaide, Jada, Joshua, Serenity and Nassir. Emily has three brothers, Basil (Late), Hilton (Late) and Nevill. Emily has one sister, Brenda. Emily has three nephews, Glen, Clifford and Neville. Emily has nine nieces, Andrea, Nicole, Shelawn, Lauren, Clarice, Joan, Gail, Ivy and Jean. Emily has two sisters-in-law, Rosa and Ingrid. Emily has one brother-in-law, William. Emily has four daughters-in-law, Patricia, Jackie, Cassandra and June. Emily has three sons-in-law, Derek, Keith and Vincent.

We promise to love and care for each other, just like you taught us. Rest in peace for you are free. No more tears; no more sorrows.
