Obituary

On Saturday, November 3, 2012 at University Hospital, Rose Weems answered the roll call and closed her eyes from labor to rest. Rose was born in Dothan, Alabama on November 18, 1919 to the late Willie Weems and the late Mamie Walker-Gardner.

Rose received Christ at an early age. Rose relocated to Newark, New Jersey in 1938, where she began her career as a Domestic Worker. Rose loved people and life equally. She had many friends who loved and adored her loyal friendship. Once you were in her company, you could never forget her. Rose presence will be greatly missed, but the memories of her will be treasured forever.

Rose leaves to cherish her life: a son, Johnny Keaton; two daughters, Mae Catherine Johnson and Ida Mae Bell of Newark, New Jersey; one daughter-in-law, Betty Weems of Brooklyn, New York and her son, Robert who preceded her in death. Rose also leaves to cherish her memory nineteen grandchildren; and a host of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren which she dearly loved, along with other relatives and devoted friends.

Grandmother

*You've been the rock of this family
You've been a mother to all,
You helped raise all of us
Was there whenever we called.*

*You're always a friend to talk to
Your light has guided our way
If we didn't know the answer
We'd see what grandmother had to say*

*We will forever love you grandmother
You mean the world to us,
Hope when we have grandchildren
Like you we can be.*
