Obituary

George “Duke” Wilson was born to the late Jessie and Amelia Wilson, on April 8, 1937 in Bishopville, South Carolina. On November 5, 2012 at Beth Israel Hospital, Newark in New Jersey, he was called home to be with the Lord.

“Duke” was married to Sara Mae Wilson for fifty-five years and in their union they had two sons, Larry of Newark, New Jersey and Donald of Brooklyn, New York, two daughters, Georgiann and Shamar both of Newark, New Jersey. He also has two sons, Robert Wilson of New York and Eugene Mack of Germany.

George attended school in the Lee County School System in Bishopville, SC. He worked at Pekay Abrasion of Verona, New Jersey for twenty years as a Machine Operator. “Duke” was a loving person who loved spending time with his family. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather and Pop Pop and always a jokester.

He was preceded in death by a son, Rickey Eugene Wilson and grandson, Jamar Richardson.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Sara Mae Wilson; his sons, Larry Donald, Robert and Eugene; daughters, Georgiann and Shamar; grandsons, Glen, Aldeen (Leslie), Marvin, Ezra, Dai Dai and Amir; granddaughter, Martina; great-grands, Zafirah, Zaniya, Khashira, Assata, Samiyah, Demetrius, Aziz, Kharee, Bernard and Zahir; one brother, Ernest Wilson (Mary); one sister, Louise Wilson; two sisters-in-law, Mary Jenkins and Whilemina Ferdinand (Richard); two brothers-in-law, Willie Rob Jenkins (Lil) and Thomas Jenkins (Audrea); one uncle, George Wilson; one aunt, Stokay McDuffy; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

At Ease

*At Ease At Ease At Ease
He washed me over with peace
Dipping my soul in serenity.
Drowning out my pain
Making my worries obscure
And soon the calm was my only cure
He led me to meet
The peace I've longed to reach,
And I promised no tears were shed
Proud to be done searching for life's peak
I followed as he led
No need to cry no need to weep
Always remember I am at ease
Because when my body was ready to sleep
He laid me down in a sea of peace.*

We love you , Pop Pop!

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever
