U Were My King

U were my king u watch me grow u taught me to be a man now God said I must let you go no more pain my falling king, you gave me life and guidance I'll always remember everything daddy it's so hard to say goodbye they always say a man is not suppose to cry as I fight these tears away I'll keep your memories in my heart each and everyday, God is so proud to have a king walk through his door, he know u was a fighter you don't have to fight no more, Daddy I Love you I'll stand strong until we meet again, you was my rock, my mentor, and always my friend Daddy I want you to stand by that door and wait for me the horse and white carriage I look up in the sky I clearly can see a smile upon your face thank you heavenly father you have a great man entering your place.
