Obituary

Pierre Yves Baptiste was a beloved husband, father, brother, grandfather, uncle and a sincere friend to so many. He was born on October 7, 1945 to Norphelia and Exalus Baptiste in Cap Haitien, Haiti. The fifth of seven children.

He was a loving and giving person; he enjoyed life to the fullest and spending time with his family and friends. He was the kind of person who never let the troubles of daily life get him down. There was always a smile on his face. Not even his diminishing health or loss of his eye sight could bring his spirit down. He lived a simple and frugal life; whole heartedly provided things that had a lasting effect. A genuine man of substance. Papi leave behind a love that allows you to live on in the hearts he touched.

He leaves behind to carry on and cherish his memory: his wife, Simone Baptiste; his sons, James Baptiste, Leonard Pierre-Louis and Kiyore Baptiste; his nieces and nephews, Gabriel, Michelle, Ariel, Betty, Kent, Dorothy, Farah, Richard, Ruby, Mathune, Martine, Fritz Jean, Josette, Mikael, Josephine, Richardson and Jean Rene; his brothers and sisters-in-law, Dorsainvil LaFond and Family, Andre LaFleur and Family, Junie Jean-Pierre and Family; Yvette and Dieudonne Augustin Family, Calixte Marcelus and Family and Marie-Ange Louis and Family; The Delva Family, The Antione Family, The LaFleur Family, The LaFond Family, The Simon Family, The Ameris Family, The Alfred Family, The Precil Family and The Baptiste Family.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
