Obituary

Boysie was born in Moruga, Trinidad, West Indies to the late Daniel and Janie Phillip. He was the second last of five children.

Boysie met Gardiner in Trinidad and fell in love. To this union, two sons were born.

Boysie left Trinidad for New York to create a better life for his wife, Gardiner and two sons, Curtis Anthony Phillip and Nigel Ray Phillip.

After finding a stable job and a comfortable home in America, he sent for his wife and two children.

Boysie leaves to mourn: his wife of forty-eight years, Gardiner Phillip; two sons, Curtis and Nigel Ray Phillip; ten grandchildren, Nicholas, Kurtis, Alexander, Marcus, Sara, Stephanie, Simon, Lucas, Adrina and Samuel; his sister, Thelma Wiggins; his two brothers, Larry and Morgan Phillip. He also leaves many nieces, nephews and close friends.

*“When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn’t tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many beautiful years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it’s time I traveled on alone.
So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It’s only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart,
I won’t be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can’t see me or touch me, I’ll be near,
And if you listen with your heart you’ll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone
I’ll greet you with a smile and say, welcome home...”*
