Obituary

Joyce Irene Wallace passed away on Monday, November 5, 2012. The first of two girls, she was born to George and Clovia Wilson on November 13, 1946. She was a lovely and fun-loving person.

Educated in the Hamilton Township School System, Joyce furthered her education in Michigan where she received her Bachelor's Degree. Joyce was a Physical Education teacher with the Trenton Board of Education until she retired. Her father, George, was a great educator and a school in Hamilton Township was named after him: The George E. Wilson Elementary School.

Joyce was preceded in death by her parents, George E. and Clovia Wilson, sister, Sylvia Wilson, nephew, Marshawn Wilson, sister-in-law, Sharon L. Wallace, ex husband, Gregory A. (Carmen) Wallace, maternal grandmother, Mrs. Hackett and a cousin, Berkey.

She leaves to mourn: her son, Duane D. Wallace; granddaughter, Nya-Shea Wallace; sister-in-law, Karole A. (Maurice) Williams; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
