Obituary

Clifton Guyhtto Williams was born on January 28, 1959 to Hilda Esperanza Guyhtto-Williams and Melvin Williams. He was nicknamed Big Cliff and those that knew him loved him!

Clifton was born and raised in Melrose Project's in the South Bronx, New York for a little while. He also attended P.S. 1 Elementary School, and from there was then home schooled. He was known in the streets, but was able to turn his life around. And once given a second chance, he got a job and started living for his family.

Sadly on Monday, November 12, 2012 Clifton Guyhtto Williams was called home to be with his Heavenly Father.

He leaves behind: two loving daughters, Shiniqua and Shidina; two beautiful granddaughters, Tynera and Brittany; one wonderful grandson, Jahmir; two sisters, Michele E Williams and Doreen Ellis; a best friend & brother, Carl Ellis; nieces, Chemere, Princess Joy, Chrystal, Myosha known as Mimi, Jasma Jahneil and Nephew in-law, James, Dawn Esperanza and Nephew in-law Israel, and a wonderful Goddaughter, Carla known as C.C. and two grandnieces, Iyanna Denise and Tiara; nephews, Tamar, Jasmine known as Boo, Emaun, Terrence and all their mothers; and a host of extended family and friends.

He goes on to be reunited with his mother, Hilda Guyhtto-Williams, his father Melvin Williams, one sister, Sherri W. Williams, two brothers Anthony Terrance Williams, Melvyn C. Williams and a loving nephew, Tamar.

Come to Me

God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you and whispered come to me with tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away although we loved you deeply we could not make you stay a golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest god broke our hearts to prove he only take the best.
